As with the best-selling 'Architects Pocket Book' this title includes everyday information which the architect/designer normally has to find from a wide variety of sources and which is not always easily to hand. Focusing on kitchen design, this book is of use to the student as well as the experienced practitioner. It outlines all the information needed to design a workable kitchen, including ergonomics, services such as water and waste, appliances, and material choices for the floor, walls and ceiling. There is no similar compendium currently available.

This vintage book contains a simple, concise guide to bottling fruit and vegetables, including simple step-by-step instructions and a selection of recipes and articles on the subject. This detailed guide will be of considerable utility to those with a practical interest in preserving home-grown produce. It will make for a worthy addition to any collection of fruit growing literature. Although old, the information contained within its pages will be useful to the modern reader, making it both a handy resource and an appealing text for collectors. The chapters of this volume include: 'Bottling Soft Fruits', 'Bottling Stone Fruits', 'Bottling Various Fruits and Vegetables', 'Fruit Bottling', 'Home Bottled Fruits and How to do Them', and 'Bottling or Canning'. We are republishing this vintage text now in an affordable, modern edition - complete with a specially commissioned introduction on food preservation.

Twelve Years a Slave (1853) is a memoir and slave narrative by Solomon Northup, as told to and edited by David Wilson. Northup, a black man who was born free in New York, details his kidnapping in Washington, D.C. and subsequent sale into slavery. After having been kept i n bondage for 12 years in Louisiana by various masters, Northup was able to write to friends and family in New York, who were in turn able to secure his release. Northup's account provides extensive details on the slave markets in Washington, D.C. and New Orleans and describes at length cotton and sugar cultivation on major plantations in Louisiana.
