Stories exploring a world of ordinary people caught between the pincers of aggressors, leading to actions at once deplorable, perplexing, and heroic. In the fall of 1944, the Red Army encircled Budapest, surrounding tens of thousands of German and Hungarian troops, and nearly a million civilians. The ensuing months witnessed one of the most brutal sieges of World War II, with block-to-block guerilla warfare followed by widespread disease, starvation, and unspeakable atrocities. Richly grounded in this historical trauma and its extended aftermath, the stories in Siege 13 alternate between the siege itself and a contemporary community of Hungarian emigrés who find refuge in the West. Illuminating the horror and absurdity of war with wit and subtlety, Tamas Dobozó explores a world in which right and wrong are not easily distinguished, and a gruesome past manifests itself in perplexing, often comical ways. Winner of the Rogers Writers' Trust Fiction Prize Praise for Siege 13 "Alice Munro . . . Isaac Babel! . . . Those comparisons may sound daunting, but Dobozó has mastered the technical conventions of his craft. . . . This vivid rendering of Hungarian history as a nightmare from which no one quite wants to awake is Dobozó's finest achievement." —Garth Risk Hallberg, The New York Times Book Review "The sheer variety of Dobozó's approaches to telling stories, and his commitment not only to provoke thought but to entertain, constitute a virtuoso performance. Siege 13 is without question one of my favorite story collections ever." —Jeff VanderMeer, The Washington Post "A superb collection of short stories that revisits two of the deadliest months in Hungarian history. The book tells the stories of those who hid, those who fought, those who betrayed, those who escaped and those who died, and how the effects of the siege still linger, three-quarters of a century later. . . . Siege 13 is one of the best books of the year." —Mark Medley, National Post (Canada)
