author Phil Rickman, what he describes as the "12 and a half" entry in his Merrily Watkins series, about a female vicar and diocesan exorcist for the cathedral city of Hereford. The Watkins stories combine supernatural and mystery elements, leading them to be classified variously as horror and crime fiction (though Rickman deliverance consultant who has featured in a series of longer novels. But much was left unsaid in that story, and now Rickman has returned to it at greater length.

This a modern tale, a modern ghost in a celebrity (Susan Lulham's) house and related in part by the cynical and secular society we now live in. As the Diocesan
